

Welcome to the Thomas & Bridges Family History Website!

This website celebrates the ancestry and descendants of James Thomas and Drury (Drewry) Bridges who settled in Trigg County, Kentucky in the early 1800s. Three children of James Thomas married three children of Drury Bridges, thus creating the Thomas and Bridges Family.

I would like to thank the late Edison H. Thomas, author of The Thomas and Bridges Story 1540-1840 and the late Gilbert N. Bridges, author of The Thomas and Bridges History from which much of the information in these pages was obtained. And, of course, thanks to my late grandfather, G. A. Bridges, author of the first published history of the family and whose inspiration made this website possible.

Members of Facebook may visit the "Descendants of James Thomas and Drewry Bridges" Facebook Group to connect with many of our family members.
