TARA DEANNE HAYS DIXON

DEC 23, 1990-NOV 18, 2015 TULSA, OK—A Funeral Service for Tara Dixon has been scheduled for 1:00 PM, Tuesday, November 24, 2015 at the First Assembly of God Church in Coweta, Oklahoma. Burial will follow at Park Grove Cemetery in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma under the direction of Hayhurst Funeral Home. Tara Deanne Dixon was born on December 23, 1990 in Tulsa, Oklahoma; the daughter of Nicole Mackey and Jason Hays. Tara went home to be with Jesus on Wednesday, November 18, 2015 in Tulsa, Oklahoma. She was 24 years of age. The former Miss Tara Hays graduated from Coweta High School in 2009 and went on to attend Nursing School at Tulsa Community College. On June 8, 2010, Tara married Christian Dixon in Coweta, Oklahoma. Tara was a dedicated mother and wife. She was a beautiful person whose mission in life was to bring others to know God. She surrounded herself with good people and always strived to be a better Christian, as well as a better person. She loved being around her friends, family, and, of course, her husband Chris—who was her world. She would have done anything and everything to make him happy. She exemplified how to be a great wife and friend. She put a smile on everyone's face. She also loved going to school. It was important to her to be successful in life for her children one day. She also loved her dog, Jak Jak, and her mom's sweet tea. She would always call and make sure someone was watching after him if she was going to be home late. She was so excited and so nervous for Asher to be here. She loved him so very much. She even wanted to keep her big belly so she could continue to feel him move inside her. She talked to him every single day and wanted him to be the cutest baby ever. She was going to be an incredible mother and wanted to be just like her own mom. She is now watching over each and every one of us, especially Asher and Chris and is so loved by so many people. Tara was a member of the First Assembly of God Church in Coweta, Oklahoma. Memorials may be made to the United States Fund for UNICEF, 125 Maiden Lane, New York, NY 10038 or Coweta Assembly, 29707 E. Hwy 51, Coweta, OK 74429. Tara is survived by, Husband, Christian Dixon, Coweta, OK, Son, Asher Dixon, Coweta, OK, Parents, Nicole Henderson and husband Ralph, Coweta, OK, Jason Hays and wife Kimberly, Sand Springs, OK, Sisters, Chalin Schultz, Sand Springs, OK, Taylor Schultz, Paducah, KY, brothers, Cody Hays and wife Brooke, Sand Springs, OK, Austin Shultz, Paducah, KY, Chris Goins, Evansville, IN, Grandparents, Harley and Margaret Mackey, Broken Arrow, OK, Dorsey Bolding, Sand Springs, OK, and Gloria Hays, Sapulpa, OK

JOYCE LAREE HOBBS CANTRELL

DEC 10, 1924-APR 17, 2015HOUSTON,TX —Joyce Laree Hobbs Cantrell, adored wife, loving mother and grandmother, cherished sister and friend, passed gently at her home on Friday the 17th of April 2015 at the age of 90. She was preceded in death by the love of her life and husband, William Allen Cantrell, M.D. Born in Rocky, Oklahoma the 10th of December 1924 to William S. (Seab) and Moneta Stewart Hobbs, she was one of eight children and their first daughter. She graduated Valedictorian of her High School class at age 16 to then hold her first paying job as a legal secretary in Cordell, Oklahoma. Four years later, during WWII, a handsome Navy doctor stationed at the Naval Air Station Clinton near Burns Flat, Oklahoma caught her eye while playing piano in the Officer's Club. After an intense three week courtship, they married the 17th of January 1945. The couple returned to Galveston, Texas after the war whereupon Bill completed his Residency in Psychiatry at U.T.M.B. and Joyce continued her career as a legal secretary for a Federal Judge in Galveston County. Houston became their home in 1950. Her attentions turned to full time mother and homemaker after children entered their lives. Throughout the years, many organizations and clubs enjoyed her generosity and leadership including The American Red Cross, the Houston Museum of Natural Science, Baylor Wives, Harris County Medical Society Women's Auxiliary, E.O. Lovett P.T.O., Campfire Girls, and Meyerland Little League Moms. She became a grandmother in 1981, thereafter to be known affectionately as "Rubba" by her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. And he, their beloved "Daddy Bill". The couple remained devoted to one another and inseparable for 56 years until his death the 24th of May 2000. She will always be remembered for the pride she took in raising a family, the pleasure she brought to many with her love of cooking, her tremendous vocabulary and love of books, her knowledge of current politics and steadfast opinions. But most of all, for her love of music which led her to a most perfect destiny. She is survived by her daughter, Mary Cantrell Soto and husband, Omar; son, William Robert (Bob) Cantrell and loyal grand-dog, "Tuffy"; grandchildren, Molly May and Dustin Mayer; great-grandchildren Jasper, Parker, and Scarlett Mayer. She is also survived by her brothers, Dan S. Hobbs and Jerry Hobbs; sisters, Jane Davis and Lynda Pence; sisters-in-law, Kathleen Teel and Elizabeth Flamm, and an immense family of loving nieces and nephews. Friends are cordially invited to a visitation with her family from five o'clock in the afternoon until seven o'clock in the evening on Friday, the 24th of April at Geo. H. Lewis & Sons, 1010 Bering Drive, in Houston. The funeral service will be conducted at eleven o'clock in the morning on Saturday, the 25th of April in the Jasek Chapel at Geo. H. Lewis & Sons with the Reverend James C. McGill of Christ Church Cathedral officiating. A private burial will follow at Forest Park Lawndale Cemetery. In lieu of the customary remembrances, the family requests memorials in her honor to be made to the charity of your choice.

MALLIE ADAMS MORRIS

MAR 30, 1923-JAN 18, 2015RAVENNA, OH—Mallie E. Morris, 91, passed away Sunday, January 18, 2015. Mallie was the second of eleven children born to parents Jim F. and Maggie B. Adams on May 30, 1923 in Hopkinsville, Kentucky. Mallie grew up in the country, on a farm south of Cadiz, Kentucky. At the age of 3 or 4 she moved with her family to Akron, Ohio. In the fall of 1930 she moved to Tennessee where she finished 2nd grade and then moved back to Kentucky. Her father farmed and she and her sisters would help in the fields from spring until fall. They would all help their mother as well tending the gardens, harvesting fruits and vegetables and canning the vegetables, jams and jellies. Mallie said she was a "slowpoke" in the fields but was thorough and very meticulous. Encouraged by her mother and father, Mallie always went to school. Her favorite subjects were science, math, typing and short hand. After graduating high school in 1942 she drove with her sister Virginia to Akron, Ohio. She soon got a job at Goodyear Aircraft where she helped build planes and bomb bay racks for B-29's. Mallie was a true "Rosie the Riveter". Mallie met and fell in love with James F. Morris Jr. in 1942. They wed in the summer of 1943 and enjoyed 33 years of marriage. She was retired after 17 years of working as an assembler at the G.E. Lamp plant in Ravenna. Mallie attended Portage Community Chapel until she moved to Florida in 1994. An avid sports fan, she coached softball teams in Randolph and assisted her husband with the Randolph Hot Stove Baseball organization and kept score for many years. She enjoyed fly fishing and was quite adept at it. Mallie is survived by her children: Danny (Gail) Morris, Jim "Smokey" (Mary) Morris, Kenny (Robert-deceased) Morris and Chris (Nancy) Morris. Also surviving are her 10 grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren. She leaves behind her sisters: Clara Carr, Mary Marmaduke, Norma Swank, Carolyn Harrison, Patricia Oberbillig and her brothers: Bobby Adams and Billy Adams. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband James F. Morris Jr., her sisters: Virginia Martin and Jimmie Luree Woody and her brother Bennie Adams. Friends will be received at the Wood-Kortright-Borkoski Funeral Home, 703 E. Main St., Ravenna, on Thursday, January 22nd from 10:00 AM until the 12:00 PM funeral service officiated by her sister, Pastor Patricia Oberbillig. Interment will follow at Maple Grove Cemetery. Mallie's family would sincerely like to express their gratitude to all the staff of the step-down and palliative care units at Robinson Memorial Hospital for their exceptional care and compassion given to Mallie and ourselves. In lieu of flowers memorial contributions can be made in Mallie's name to Ravenna Hot Stove Baseball.
